

INFORMATION REGARDING
FRAMING DANCE

A 2009 DISCOVERY SERIES Program
with Travesty Dance Group

FIELD TRIP

PERFORMANCES DAILY: March 23-26 2009 at 9:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m.
LOCATION: Zilkha Hall, Hobby Center for Performing Arts downtown

BUSES for participating classes PROVIDED
By HOBBY CENTER for Performing Arts

Student tickets: $5.00

For booking your class (buses & tickets); contact:

Denise Wright: (713) 315-2512

Denise.Wright@hcpa.com

If you have questions, or difficulty booking,
please contact Karen Stokes:

kstokes@uh.edu

(832) 794-5825

Framing Dance is a live multi-media dance journey into the “meaning of dance” through story telling. Students view live performances, as well as having a chance to participate in a dance on stage.